PREZ RELEASE

PREZ RELEASE

Oh, Oh! Like a bad penny I'm back! I know I am supposed to be gone, but since no one stepped up to be the Club President for the coming year, at the last Club meeting, I was asked, and I agreed to continue for another year.

As I write this, Christmas is a week and half away so HAPPY HOLIDAYS and a Triumphant NEW YEAR! Several of our Club members have been actively working on setting up our Winter Party. See flyer in this Newsletter. I would like to especially thank Dick Leighninger (for coordinating with Josephs Grill), Terry Mackey (for creating the Flyer Notice) and Joe Bisanz and Larry Berg (for handling the Door Prize Raffle).

THANKS! I hope you can attend!

Next month, Thursday, January 10, 2019 is our first Club meeting of the year. The meetings again will be held at Ol' Mexico in Roseville, MN. As always Tire-kicking starts at 6:00 pm and the Meeting at 7:00pm.

It is never too early to start thinking about and planning for the possible trips you want to take with your Triumph in the coming year. Here are some possibilities to consider:

- New Years Day. In the past, at sunrise, we have met at Birkmose Park in Hudson Wisc. for our traditional toast to the New Year. (No one has ever driven their Triumph to this event as far as I know).
- June 6-9, 2019, Rendezvous 2019 in Eau Claire, Wisconsin.
- 2019 VTR, second week in October, Dripping Springs, Texas.

2019 will be the 9th driving season in my 1958 TR3A. Wow, amazing how time slips by. Seems like yesterday that I flew to Washington, Missouri to pick it up at Wilson Motors. I've had this 3A longer than the 1961 3A that I had in college. That Triumph and a Jaguar

XK 140 Fixed head coupe was replaced by a 1969 Fiat 124 Sports Coupe, which was replaced by a 1969 Triumph GT6+, which was replaced by a 1972 Jeep Commando, which was replaced by a 1972 Corvette and on and on until 39 years after selling my last Triumph the 58 3A was purchased from Dennis Wilson. One thing I've learned since joining Minnesota Triumphs is that the more involved you are in the Club and its activities, the more fun you will have driving your Triumph and the more friendships you will develop.

HAPPY MOTORING

MINUTES OF THE MINNESOTA TRIUMPHS

Minnesota Triumphs Meeting Minutes
Oct 11th 2018

A chilly 35 degree day greeted our members to the last club meeting of 2018. Only 4 Triumphs braved the trek to Ol' Mexico. Many are already tucked away for the winter, some are awaiting some of the remaining beautiful fall days, the rest are being repaired.

I counted 49 in attendance this month with new member Jane Mausser joining us. Jane currently has a 75 Spit she is enjoying. Jane has had several TR's over the years, and fond memories of them all.

October meeting officer elections were great. All positions are filled. Our Pres and Vice Pres are returning for another year with a great team of officers and advisors. Under old Business- Status of looking for a PA system was asked. (last month it was suggested to get a PA system for the club meeting under new business.) Side conversations going on during the meeting make it hard for many to hear the REAL meeting. No progress to date.

Attending Club officers shared their respective information, which is shared with us in the club newsletter.

Have a great Holiday season, see you in 2019.

The American Triumph community lost its greatest PR man and historian. Mike Cook, long time editor of The Vintage Triumph (TVT), passed away on November 27th of pneumonia at the age of 85. Mike started at Standard-Triumph North America in 1958 as an assistant advertising manager and was also put in charge of the Triumph Sports Owners Association. He is the one that took all those great shots of Triumphs on the beach. Except for a 16 month stint at Mobil Oil, Mike stayed on through all the changes of Standard-Triumph to British Leyland until Jaguar was all that was left. He retired in 1991. Mike never stopped promoting the Triumph brand right up to the end.

Mike wrote this summer for the Triumph Register of America newsletter: "We have transitioned to looking at our cars as collectibles, but we have real, hands-on memories of driving and enjoying them from the beginning. In the not-too-distant future, we with our first-hand knowledge, will be gone ... I hope that enough of our children have learned to appreciate our lives with Triumph and will both keep them and enjoy driving them."

Earlier this fall, Mike had recruited Shawn Frank to be associate editor of TVT to learn and eventually to take over as editor. Shawn is well known in the Spitfire community and has a Facebook site at North American Triumphs and is also part of the TR4 Facebook site. I am excited to see where Shawn is going to take the TVT and the changes that he will bring. Maybe worth signing up to VTR for a year to see?

Jill's Tech Session

September 15 was a hot and humid day, but that didn't stop about a dozen helpful Triumph club members from coming to the tech session at Jill Davenport's house. The '75 Spitfire had a long and varied list of issues to address. One team started under the hood to try to figure out why it starts with such difficulty. Someone else replaced the gasket on the ragtop so that rain will no longer soak the laps of occupants! A team started on replacing the window seals and door panels. Another looked at why there were no dash lights and intermittent backup lights. And another tried to install three-point seatbelts but determined we had the wrong part. The window seals were such a bug-a-boo, that Steve Shogren and Doug Burch returned early the following week to battle the task to completion. Big thanks from Jill to all who lent their expertise and hands to continue to improve the Spit!

Winona Culture Tour

To say that Saturday, the 20th of October was not the best day to be out in a classic, British, sports car would be an understatement. The thermometer was somewhere in the 40s (around 7 Celsius), with a breeze and . . . snow. And while a classic Mini or Land Rover would have taken it in stride, our group of five: Dick and Sally Leighninger, Jill Davenport, my lovely bride Susan and myself, prudently decided to utilize our “daily drivers” for this particular outing.

Our excursion began at Remlinger Muscle Cars, where local Winona businessman Jim Remlinger has assembled an impressive collection of classic pieces of Detroit iron, mostly of the MOPAR marque, with the odd Ford, Ferrari and Devin racer added to the mix. The eclectic collection of automotive ephemera, gas pumps and pop coolers only added to the ambiance of the experience. The group then visited the Watkins Museum, taking in the history of the maker of home products, pondering the equipment used to produce their wares and admiring the displays of tins and bottles of the variety of products they have produced over the years and some of us feeling a tad nostalgic, remembering family members who sold or utilized (and still implement) Watkins products in their daily routines. This was followed by a short stroll down the block to the Polish Cultural Institute and History Museum where the group learned a little about the Kashubia region of Poland and the people who settled the area around Winona. Afterwards, the group lunched at Bub’s pub, went antiquing or sought out provisions and later dined at the Green Mill before turning in for the night.

Sunday found our members starting the day by taking the drive up to the scenic overlook at Garvin Heights to take in the panoramic view of Winona, and the surrounding bluffscape. The group then proceeded to take in the impressive collection of artwork on display at the Minnesota Marine Art Museum, the centerpiece of which, arguably, is one of two existing, original copies of “Washington Crossing the Delaware.” Lunch was then had at the Boat House restaurant adjacent to Levee Park and overlooking the Mississippi River before finishing the weekend by viewing the variety of artifacts on display at the Winona Historical Society Museum and heading home.

MEMBERSHIP NOTES

OK, this is the month that I normally start reminding members that their yearly dues need to be paid by March 30. But this year, since the club is taking a one-year hiatus from collecting dues, I don't have anything to write about. So....let's see what I have been up to since the TR has been put snugly to bed for the winter.

When Karen was in the hospital last September I asked her what she wanted for her birthday, not really expecting any answer other than the usual, "Oh, I really don't need anything." But this year, without even thinking, she said, "A sideboard for the den to take the place of the piano." It has sat unused since the daughters moved from home (more years ago than I want to count). Well, that was a real surprise. A quick internet search resulted in several possibilities, all of which were deemed "too expensive!" by my budget minded wife. Well, what if I built one instead? "Oh, that's too much work," was the answer. But after talking it over with woodworking friend Larry, I decided that was what I should do. A woodworking project is perfect for winter, and clean-up is so much easier than washing grease stained cloths after a car project.

Then, what did we do with the piano, you may be wondering. It was donated to an organization called Keys 4/4 Kids, that refurbishes older, but usable pianos and gives several a year to families that want a piano but otherwise couldn't afford one. The rest are sold to generate money for music related activities around the metro area. Website: <http://keys44kids.net>

I'll post a picture of the finished sideboard in a later newsletter. Keep warm.
